

XPO Logistics Named One of America's Best Employers by Forbes

May 11, 2017

Updated May 24, 2017

GREENWICH, Conn. - May 11, 2017 - XPO Logistics, Inc. (NYSE: XPO) today announced that it has been recognized by Forbes as one of America's Best Employers for 2017.

Meghan Henson, chief human resources officer with XPO Logistics, said; "We're delighted to be recognized by Forbes for our supportive workplace environment and high levels of employee engagement. We have an outstanding team of 89,000 talented people at XPO – over 44,000 of them in North America. Our culture of intense customer service brings out the best in our employees."

Forbes used research firm Statista to survey 30,000 American workers from mid-sized and large companies. The responses were used to determine the best employers based on how likely workers were to recommend their employer to others, as well as what companies they recommended outside of their own.
