

XPO Logistics Appoints Bertrand Dussert as Senior Vice President of Global Talent Acquisition

December 5, 2017

Greenwich, Conn. - December 5, 2017 - XPO Logistics, a leading global provider of transport and logistics solutions, today announced the appointment of Bertrand Dussert as senior vice president of global talent acquisition, effective immediately. Dussert is responsible for XPO's talent recruitment organization, infrastructure and technology worldwide in support of the company's growth.

Dussert has two decades of executive experience in talent recruitment and customer management. He most recently served as vice president of human capital management transformation for Oracle, where he worked with some of the world's largest companies to implement multinational recruitment strategies. Earlier, he held senior positions for global recruitment and workforce planning with American Express and UBS Investment Bank; and served as global head of client services for Vurv Technology (now an Oracle company). He holds a bachelor's degree in political science and a master's degree in international relations from the University of Western Ontario, Canada.

Dussert reports to Meghan Henson, chief human resources officer of XPO Logistics, who said, "Bertrand brings an exciting perspective to talent acquisition that connects the dots from technology, to recruitment, to customer service on a global scale. I look forward to working closely with Bertrand as we continue to build a world-class team at XPO."
