XPO Logistics Named to the Freight.Tech 100 by FreightWaves

GREENWICH, Conn. - October 23, 2018 - XPO Logistics (NYSE: XPO), a leading global provider of transportation and logistics solutions, has been named to the 2018 Freight.Tech 100 list by FreightWaves, a digital resource for data, news and commentary about the North American freight market. The Freight.Tech 100 list recognizes the most technologically disruptive companies in the transportation industry.

Mario Harik, chief information officer of XPO Logistics, said, "We're honored to be named to the Freight.Tech 100 for advancing supply chain efficiency through innovation. We're delivering the future of transportation and logistics today through machine learning, predictive analytics, marketplace digitalization and other cutting-edge technologies that support our customers' growth."

More than 500 nominations were submitted for the 2018 Freight.Tech 100. The 100 companies that earned a place on the list will ultimately be narrowed to the Freight.Tech 25 in November, as determined by an independent panel of industry executives, academics and investors.
