

Three XPO Logistics Executives Named SDCE Pros to Know

March 17, 2021

Ashfaqe Chowdhury, Drew Wilkerson and Erik Caldwell honored

GREENWICH, Conn., March 17, 2021 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- XPO Logistics, Inc. (NYSE: XPO), a leading global provider of supply chain solutions, today announced that three of its business leaders have been recognized by Supply & Demand Chain Executive (SDCE) for their accomplishments in the supply chain industry.

The XPO executives selected by SDCE as 2021 Pros to Know are: Ashfaqe Chowdhury, president, supply chain logistics – Americas and Asia Pacific; Drew Wilkerson, president, North American transportation; and Erik Caldwell, president, last mile.

Troy Cooper, president, XPO Logistics, said, "Ashfaqe, Drew and Erik are stellar leaders of key business units at XPO. Together, they have more than four decades of leadership experience with supply chain operations in the consumer and industrial sectors. I'm pleased that they've received this well-deserved recognition from SDCE."

SDCE magazine describes the 2021 Pros to Know as outstanding executives whose accomplishments offer a roadmap that can help industry leaders, customers and the supply chain community at large meet many of today's and tomorrow's challenges. SDCE is known as the executive's user manual for supply and demand chain transformation.

XPO is one of the largest supply chain service providers in the world, with leading positions in both transportation and logistics. In 2020, the company's XPO Connect™ digital freight marketplace received the SDCE 100 Award for Innovation.
