

XPO Renews Support for Susan G. Komen® 3-Day Walks as Official Transportation Partner

January 7, 2026

GREENWICH, Conn., Jan. 07, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- XPO (NYSE: XPO), a leading provider of freight transportation in North America, announced that it has renewed its long-standing commitment as the official transportation partner of the Susan G. Komen® 3-Day fundraising walks through March 2029.

"The 3-Day fundraising walks represent hope, strength and progress for those affected by breast cancer," said Carolyn Roach, chief human resources officer of XPO. "Through our long-term partnership, we are proud to support Susan G. Komen's mission while giving our employees meaningful ways to make an impact."

XPO ensures that critical event materials safely reach every city on the 3-Day route by providing complimentary transportation, storage and logistical expertise. Employees also participate in the walks and fundraise in support of Susan G. Komen's mission to end breast cancer.

"The Susan G. Komen 3-Day® would simply not be possible without XPO's commitment to bringing our events to life across the country," said Sarah Rosales, SVP, corporate partnerships at Susan G. Komen. "As a long-standing partner, XPO plays a critical role in supporting the logistics, scale and participant experience, all which make Komen's 3-Day the powerful national movement it's become. We couldn't be more grateful for their renewed investment which strengthens our collective momentum and directly advances the progress we are making to end breast cancer."

XPO will support the following walks over the next 3-Day season:

- Boston, August 21-23, 2026
- Dallas/Fort Worth, October 23-25, 2026
- San Diego, November 13-15, 2026
- Tampa Bay, February 19-21, 2027
